- Social Justice and Activism. Students in these courses analyze and critique social systems of power that create and reinforce hierarchies of difference in their local or international community. They develop their cultural agility skills and learn to develop and apply the Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Justice (DEIJ) skills necessary to become agents of positive social change in their communities.
- Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Justice (DEIJ) in the Workplace. Students in these courses analyze and critique social systems of power that create and reinforce hierarchies of difference in the workplace. They develop their cultural agility skills and learn to develop and apply the DEIJ skills necessary to become agents of positive social change in the workplace.

² At least 12 of the 20 credits taken for the minor must be at either the 200 or 300-level. No more than 2 courses should be taken from the same department.
