

DOCTOR OF NURSING PRACTICE - FAMILY NURSE PRACTITIONER

NRSNG 593	Doctorate Project IV	1
NRSNG 594	DOCTORATE PROJECT V	1
Total Hours		70

The College of St. Benedict, in partnership with St. John’s University, Doctor of Nursing Practice Family Nurse Practitioner program is designed to prepare actively practicing RNs to provide advanced care for patients across their lifespan in a variety of settings including family practice, primary care, urgent care, and hospital settings. The DNP-FNP program at CSB/SJU is rooted in the tradition of Benedictine values and inspires students to become ethical leaders in their field of practice. Our core values of ethical leadership, advocacy, scholarship, global citizenship, and innovation are integrated throughout the curriculum and provide a unique graduate student experience. Students in this program will have guaranteed clinical placements and the opportunity for a specialty care clinical elective in an area of interest for the student.

The DNP-Family Nurse Practitioner program is a hybrid online program.
